Our suites have open-air balconies with views over manicured gardens and the River Liffey. You will be sure to receive a warm and friendly welcome accompanied by a comfortable and relaxing stay.

Experience the very best with SteakHouse 1756. Designed with comfort in mind, the rustic steakhouse restaurant is open plan, where the light streams through the windows of the old stone walls enhancing the charm and ambience. The 1756 name relates to Arthur Guinness starting his brewery in Leixlip that year, and reflects the story of the Court Yard site also being an abattoir back in the 1930's. Our team of chefs take great pride in choosing only the best quality of prime cuts of Irish beef, locally sourced, to ensure you receive the very best steaks, full of flavour and served to your liking.

Whether it's for sport, entertainment or craic, Arthur's bar has it all. Arthur's is the ideal place to meet friends and enjoy the public house atmosphere of years long since past and that many still search for. With a delicious bar menu to tickle the taste buds, live entertainment weekly and our famous courtyard to catch all the live sporting action on our large outdoor screen, the Court Yard Hotel offers the perfect location and of course you will always have to try a Pint of the Black Stuff in the place where it all began.
